STUDENT DROWNS WHILE ON HIS VACATION TRIP

RAYMOND LENNON, DROWNED AT MONTE RIO.

St. Mary's Pupil Loses Life at Monte Rio

Raymond Lennon, one of the most popular students at St. Mary's College, was drowned in Russian river at the summer resort of Monte Rio yesterday. A telephone message announcing the sad fact to the college authorities failed to give details of the tragic ending of young Lennon's life.

Only a week ago Lennon was here, registered to resume his studies after vacation, and accompanied by a number of college men, went to Monte Rio in Sonoma county to spend a short vacation in the Russian river country. From the time of their departure until the brief telephone message today no word had been received from the party.

RELATIVE TO JUDGE LENNON.

The announcement of Raymond Lennon's untimely death will shock his friends, among whom he was very popular. He was 19 years old and a nephew of Superior Judge Thomas J. Lennon of Marin county. He had been residing with his grandmother at 2323 Divisadero street, San Francisco.

YOUNG WIFE SAYS SPOUSE BEATS HER; ASKS DIVORCE

LETTER CARRIER FACES TROUBLE

Mrs. D. J. Hallahan, in Hiding, Begins Her Suit.

D. J. HALLAHAN.

After eighteen months of married life following an elopement to San Rafael in the early part of April, 1906, pretty Edie Hallahan, whose maiden name was Edie Perceval, this morning brought suit for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty against Daniel Joseph Hallahan, a well-known letter carrier, who she left but a few days ago because of his alleged abuse. Attorney E. E. Gehring, who filed the complaint, said he was not at liberty to disclose the family troubles of the young wife who was married so quietly, much to the surprise of her friends.

ALLEGES THREATS.

The couple have recently been living on Twenty-third street, near Telegraph avenue, where some of the troublesome affairs are said to have originated. Hallahan is said to have grown tired of the affections of his pretty spouse, and beat her for little or nothing, according to the story of the marital unpleasantness. He is said to have threatened to kill her when he was drinking and is alleged to have struck her a heavy blow in the eye.

Being unable to live with the husband longer, the young wife took her contemplated steps and brought suit against him for divorce. For the past few days she has been absent from home, and according to reports is living with friends in Berkeley, where she prays her spouse will not find her.

CLIMBS OVER TRANSOM AND CAPTURES DARING BURGLAR

Policeman Holds Prisoner in Saloon Until Another Officer Gets Proprietor to Open Door.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Caught in the act of robbing the Pioneer saloon on Fillmore street near California at 4:20 o'clock this morning, Charles Smith, was booked at the city prison on a charge of burglary.

Policeman J. H. Coleman this morning heard a noise in the saloon at 2029 Fillmore street. He went into the passage way between the saloon and a drug store and discovered that a man was endeavoring to open the cash register. He had evidently pried open a window with a jimmy. The officer watched him for some time and seeing that he was making a determined effort to get away with the contents of the till, summoned Policeman Barff and obtained a chair from across the street.

Standing on this, he looked over the transom into the saloon and saw that the burglar was alone. He covered him with his revolver, and climbing up, tore the transom from its place and jumped into the room. The burglar was handcuffed, but the officer could see no way of taking him out of the saloon without opening the door. He therefore ordered Policeman Barff to summon the proprietor, A. A. Demick and after a short time he appeared and opened the front door.

The cash register was battered almost to bits and $45, which it had contained, was found on the person of the burglar.

WITNESSES SWEAR REED IS $5000 DIAMOND THIEF

Clerk in Store Identifies Prisoner and Boy Tells Seeing Him Pass Package While Running.

James Reed, when positively identified as the robber of the $5000 worth of diamonds from the P. C. Fuller jewelry store at Thirteenth and Washington streets on April 24 last.

Miss Mabel Wright, who was one of the clerks in the store at the time, says he is the man. H. J. Morgan, who was working on the safe at the time of the robbery, recognized Reed as soon as he entered the store with his two accomplices and says he knew Reed several months before the robbery. Miss Alice Schwab, says she saw Reed run past the Thirteenth street side of the store showing something in the inside of his overcoat. All the witnesses seem to be sure of Reed.

After obtaining a jury yesterday afternoon, P. C. Fuller took the witness stand and testified that his stolen jewelry was worth within ten per cent of $5000. He was not in the store at the time of the robbery, but arrived shortly after.

SAW BOX PASSED.

William Randall, a sawboy, testified that he recognized Reed at the corner of Thirteenth and Broadway, where he saw him pass what looked like a small package or box to a short man who ran down the street after him.

Wong Kam, a Chinese cook, and Leonon Haraokuki, a Japanese porter, were in the rear of McVey's saloon on Telegraph avenue when they said, Reed ran in through the kitchen and out through the back door and over the fence. The Chinese knew Reed well and spoke to him.

DENIED IDENTITY.

St. Clair Hodgkins and D. M. Holland, detectives, testified that Reed at first denied his identity in the jail at Fresno, where he was arrested, but when Hodgkins told him he recognized him. Reed admitted that such was his name and he was willing to return to Oakland.

J. A. King, living at 442 Thirty-seventh street, is the last witness for the prosecution, but has succeeded in evading the officers, who have searched for him during the past several days with a subpoena.

SLAUGHTER OF MOORS BY FRENCH

Fierce Battle Again Rages Near Casa Blanca.

CASA BLANCA, Sept. 4.—Eight Frenchmen were killed and seventeen wounded in an engagement yesterday outside the camp. The dead include Major P. Revost of the First battalion of Foreign Legion and Benissas, of the Second battalion of Algerian sharpshooters. The Moors concentrated the largest force they had yet mustered in this vicinity and returned to the attack again and again after encountering the deadly fire of the French artillery and machine guns. The enemies losses are described as enormous. The fighting was started by an attack made by the Moors on a French scouting party.

TO RESTORE ORDER.

PARIS, Sept. 4.—The Libre Parole declares that the cabinet has considered a proposition made to General Joffre, commanding the French forces at Casa Blanca by Mual Hafis, that if the signatories of the Algiers convention recognize Mual Hafis as Sultan he will undertake to restore order. He asks as a pledge of good faith that the powers permit him to have the arms and ammunition which are detained at Mogador, and says if his proposition is not accepted he will preach a holy war.

The cabinet, the Libre Parole says, has resolved to place the matter before the powers, but at the same time it was decided to send General Druide further reinforcements of artillery and Colonial troops from Senegal.

TRY REVENGE BY DYNAMITE

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—An explosion in the store of Stanley R. Graham, dealer in paints and wallpaper, 140 North State street, at 2 o'clock this morning, wrecked the building and threw out of bed several persons asleep on the second floor, but injured no one. The explosion was heard a mile away and the guests at the Virginia hotel, nearby, as well as occupants of the homes in the vicinity, were awakened and all were for a time excited, and a few people ran into the streets.

The explosion is believed to have been gunpowder. All the windows in the building were broken and the contents of the store were demolished. The explosion is attributed to the "dynamiters" who have been believed by the police to be trying to revenge themselves upon Chicago capitalists. Why Mr. Graham should have been selected as a victim of their vengeance is unknown.

Judge Lawlor Grants Stay of Execution for Thirty Days—Friends Are Sympathetic.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Louis Glass, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at San Quentin by Judge Lawlor this morning.

Glass received his sentence with little more display of emotion than he had shown during the progress of the long trial which resulted in a verdict of guilty. It was only after his attorneys had exhausted legal resources that Glass himself arose and replied to the question of Judge Lawlor if he had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced.

"I have no reply to make," he said, in a voice that was weak but not uncertain, "except that I am entirely guiltless of this charge."

The first reply to Judge Lawlor's question as to whether the defendant had any objection or cause why judgment should not be pronounced, was made by Attorney Coogan, who moved for a new trial. This was promptly denied.

MOTION DENIED.

Again Judge Lawlor asked if there were any further objections. Attorney Coogan then entered a lengthy motion for a stay of judgment, reciting the matters that have been entered in the motions for demurrers, and dismissal of indictments, previous to conviction. These were promptly denied also by the court.

In pronouncing judgment, Judge Lawlor said:

"Two general considerations have been pressing the mind of the court in determining upon a sentence. The first is, that a man well advanced in years and charged with a crime for the first time with the commission of a public offense, has appeared here for trial with nothing else against his character or conduct. The other consideration is the nature of the offense and the effect of such transgression of the law upon the safety of the public rights and the public welfare."

PRONOUNCES JUDGMENT.

"I have, in view of these considerations, reached a conclusion which seems to me to be fair and just under all the circumstances."

"Louis Glass, it is the judgment of this court, and it is hereby ordered, that you shall be confined to the State Penitentiary at San Quentin for a period of five years."

Glass sank back to his seat and nothing was said for several moments. It was Judge Lawlor who broke the silence by asking:

"Do you desire a stay of execution?"

"We would ask for thirty days," suggested Mr. Coogan.

"It is so ordered," replied Judge Lawlor, and stepped down from the bench.

SYMPATHY FOR PRISONER.

Glass' friends, who surrounded him then shook hands with him, congratulating him on the fortitude with which he had borne the ordeal and expressed their sympathy.

Woman Charged With Murder of J. F. Glover Has Her Trial Set for September 23.

The matter of setting the date of the trial was next taken up. District Attorney Brown wanted it to be held at an early date, stating the two of the witnesses, one Walter J. McCafferty, the only spectator of the deadly combat, wanted to leave for New York. Creely opposed such trial, because he said he required plenty of time to interview the witnesses for his client.

PROSECUTION READS.

"I would not want to rush any defendant to trial," said Brown. "I think that by the 23rd this case ought to be ready. The prosecution" (Continued on Page 2.)

their sympathy. Except for a nervous twitching of the muscles in his face, and the repeated stroking of his cheek with his hand, he showed little display of emotion.

The question of whether Glass will be prosecuted further under the other indictments against him was not brought up. Judge Lawlor said yesterday he wanted to know the plans of the prosecution before pronouncing sentence. He asked District Attorney Langdon today if he had anything to say as to why judgment should not be pronounced. It was generally understood that if the present sentence against Glass is allowed to stand, that he will not be further prosecuted under other charges. Five years is considered a serious punishment.

CLAMOR ERRORS.

The grounds offered in the motion for a new trial were that the court had misdirected the jury in two matters of law not specified, that the court erred in points of law and that the verdict was contrary to the law and the evidence.

In the motion for arrest of judgment, it was stated that the indictment does not contain charges constituting a public offense, also that the alleged bribe was not given to Loneragan in his official capacity, nor was it charged that he accepted it in an official capacity to change his vote or influence his colleagues. It was further stated that

It was not shown how the franchise matter was pending before the board of supervisors or what jurisdiction the board had. The second general ground for this motion was that the court had no jurisdiction to try a case under the indictments before the indictments had not been returned by a legal grand jury.

COURT RULES.

In ruling on this matter, Judge Lawlor said:

"The motion for arrest of judgment may be divided into two parts. The first part covers the ground covered in the demurrer which has already been argued at length in this court, and it will be disallowed as in that case. As for the matter of a Grand Jury, the court does not believe that it is entitled to consider such a matter under this motion. The motion, therefore, will be denied."

Glass was obliged to stand while Judge Lawlor recited the facts relating to the finding of indictment, procedure in the trial, and a statement of the indictment. He then sat down, while his attorneys made various motions. After that he was again called upon to stand by his attorney, Mr. Coogan, who said:

"Now is the time to make your own statement."

With this Mr. Glass stood up and protested his entire innocence of the charge on which he has been found guilty and then looked steadily downward while the court pronounced his sentence.

FIRST JAPANESE WIFE TO ASK DIVORCE IN AMERICA

Like Her Occidental Sisters She Accuses Her Spouse of Cruelty and Wants Him to Pay Alimony.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The woman of the Orient has heard the call of the divorce courts. No more will she know before her lord and master, with her face in the dust and say whatever in her language corresponds to "I am thy handmaid." Do with me whatever pleases thy sovereign will. She has found that her case has a door to it that opens from the inside.

Mrs. Shimono Tanaka wife of Zenta Tanaka, a prosperous Japanese merchant in Gough street is the pioneer in the new field. Her suit for divorce is on the ground of cruelty. Filed in the county clerk's office yesterday was the first of its kind ever brought by any Japanese woman in America. It is a fair inference that it is the first ever brought by any woman reared in the traditions of the Orient.

Mrs. Tanaka is a pretty little woman of the brown skinned almond eyed type. She was married in Honolulu five years ago and shortly afterward came with her husband to San Francisco where they have lived ever since. Tanaka prospered and saved his money and now is the principal owner in the firm that bears his name.

Tanaka, according to his wife, did all the things of which American wives accuse their husbands. She says he stays out nights, and when he does come home he is drunk. When under the influence of sake he even brandished a knife in her face and threatened to kill her. He had beaten and abused her in the presence of others, she averred, thereby causing great anguish of mind. He cursed her when her sister came to see her.

Mrs. Tanaka decided this was not to be endured any longer. She determined on the step that to a woman of her traditions must have been like a leap from a precipice. She was careful to look before leaping, however.

Her complete mastery of the subject is seen in nothing so much as in her demand for alimony. She thinks $50 a month about right, as she claims her husband has several thousand dollars in the Yokohama special bank, besides the proceeds of his business. The bank is named as co-defendant with her husband in the suit.

A restraining order which was granted later by Judge Morgan at the request of Attorney John P. Allen prevented the husband from paying out any of Tanaka's money.

CHIC 'GADFLY' NOT PRESENT SAYS WATKINS SHOT PETERSON

Absence of Pretty Nurse Causes Army Trial to Lag in Interest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—Expecting a glimpse of the "Gadfly" pretty nurse who is credited with stirring strife at Fort Baker has been dubbed a thorn turned out to the Grindley court martial yesterday. It was rumored this because of whom one-half the families at the fort are said to have "out" the other half when they met on officers' row, was to be called to testify at the trial of Sergeant Grindley, charged with forgery and embezzlement.

It is in fighting the pros and cons of this trial that the story of the social war has been told and facts have become known of bitter personal enmities that have resulted which it is said are to be carried to Washington for military adjudication.

Lieutenant T. A. Jones is authority for the statement that the nurse was married and separated from her husband, which was discovered only after a year had elapsed from the time of her introduction at the fort.

But the "Gadfly" did not appear yesterday, and the disappointment was general. The absence of Lieutenant Jones, too, caused the proceedings to lag, and an early adjournment was taken until tomorrow afternoon.

The prosecution was prepared to complete the case yesterday, but this plan was upset by the absence of Jones who is confined to his quarters. So Captain H. B. Clarke, who Jones declares is setting in the case as a result of the social division caused by the "Gadfly" and because of which he and Clarke became unfriendly, could not advance for the defense, as he promised to do at the opening of the case, "a novel work that will account for the conduct of Grindley."

'FRED' BOQUET PASSES AWAY

Former Widely Known Liquor Merchant Succumbs in San Francisco.

Many people in this city will be surprised and grieved to learn of the death of William F. Boquet, more generally and popularly known as "Fred" Boquet. For a number of years the decedent was connected with the liquor business in Oakland. At one time he was associated with his brother Joseph in the management of the Gualdino Hotel bar. Later he became one of the proprietors of that enterprise, and was associated with Fred Frank, and still later with others in the conduct of the place. After leaving Oakland he retired to his former home in San Pablo and was connected with various enterprises there. Several weeks ago Boquet became seriously ill and was taken to the German Hospital in San Francisco, where death ensued.

At the time of his death he was in the forty-sixth year of his age.

Interment took place Monday last in Mountain View Cemetery in this city.

SAYS MONEY VOTED FOR PARKS IS NOT ENOUGH

Councilman, Who Suggests That Edson Adams Will Donate Land to the City, Meets With Discouragement.

The City Council for a while last night again discussed the proposition of the city giving notice of its intention to acquire a strip of Adams' Point along the lake shore for boulevard purposes. As usual Milton S. Hamilton, representing the property owners, was present to voice a protest.

The matter was brought up when Councilman Pendleton introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is hereby determined and declared by the Council of the City of Oakland that public interest and necessity demand the acquisition by the City of Oakland of those certain lands, situated in the said city, said lands being described as follows: to wit: Bounded on the north by Grand Avenue, on the south and East by Lake Merritt, and on the west by the lands heretofore proposed to be acquired for park purposes. That said lands are necessary to be acquired by said city for the use of the inhabitants of said city of Oakland."

SAYS PRICE TOO SMALL.

Attorney Hamilton in protesting stated he had been informed that the $992,000 recently voted to acquire park sites was many thousands dollars short of enough to pay the prices asked for the lands mentioned in the resolution. The lands which were issued and voted on, he therefore argued that the city has no ready money to pay for the strip of land the Pendleton resolution proposes to purchase, hence no such action should be taken.

First Strike Comes in Teddy Bear Trade

The manufacturers say there is no danger of a "Teddy bear" famine.

will be in readiness. We have about the same testimony ready to submit as was taken before the grand jury."

After a short discussion, Creely expressed himself as satisfied to have the case set for trial on September 13. During the argument the Scully woman seemed anxious to say a word to her lawyer, but when he agreed to the date set by Judge Melvin, she stepped back apparently satisfied.

Olive Scully appeared more "at home" in court today than at any other time since her arrest. She was not dressed as elaborately today as formerly. She wore a gray suit and fur coat. Instead of the blue lagoon hat and its long ostrich plumes, she wore a black straw with red and pink roses.

GOES TO PRISON MATRON.

After she had pleaded she went over to the jail matron, Mrs. White and took a seat until she and Deputy Sheriff Sweeney accompanied her back to the prison.

Attorney Creely had no further comments to make today on what the defense would be or whether he would have an associate counsel. He will, however, make a fight for Olive Scully on the ground that she was temporarily insane at the time of throwing the vitriol in the face of her former companion, whose alleged insanity is said to have driven her to desperation.

Alleged Slayer of Patrolman Declares Police Are Seeking Revenge.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—John J. Tansey, who was accused by Policeman Mitchell of murdering Officer McCartney at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, appeared in Judge Conlin's court this morning and was arraigned as to his rights. The case was then continued for one week.

The defendant has retained Attorney E. B. Kirk. He claims that he is a victim of persecution on the part of the police and says that they are "gruesome" against him on account of some trouble which he had with Policeman Foley some months ago.

Up to noon today, the police had not succeeded in locating Tansey's companion of last night, but Captain J. Detlev Colby, with four of his men, spent the entire morning in the Mission district working on the case.

MAYOR TAYLOR BLAMED FOR LABOR DAY BLOODSHED

His Chief of Police Took No Precautions to Prevent Riot and Showed Himself Incompetent to Suppress Disorder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The rioting on Labor Day, followed by the assassination of Policeman McCartney, has produced a gloomy feeling in business circles. The prevailing money tightness has produced an exceedingly sensitive feeling, and every little disturbance causes apprehension.

FEAR BAD EFFECT.

That the Labor Day trouble will do great harm to San Francisco in the Eastern money centers is the opinion of all business men. It will make borrowing harder and tend to divert trade to other Pacific seaports.

Mayor Taylor and the Chief of Police are mainly blamed for the violence and bloodshed. Although there were many premonitions of disturbances, the police department took only the most puerile precautions to maintain peace and order. The Mayor apparently took no interest in the matter, and appears to regard the battle against the street cars as a matter of course. Indeed some of the police fraternized with the rioters and at least three of them joined in the attacks. While the row was in progress the police arrested four carmen, but not a single rioter. Captain Conboy was the only police official who displayed courage and a resolute determination to do his duty. Patrolmen can not be expected to take the initiative when the officers above him are timid, weak and vacillating.

ENCOURAGES VIOLENCE.

Two of the most important official acts of Mayor Taylor gave direct encouragement to violence and disorder, placing the blame for the disturbances on the carmen department and appointing Michael Casey president of the Board of Public Works. Casey was the grand marshal of the parade. Other members of the general strike committee were his regular advisers.

While in command of the Mission District Captain Anderson, the acting Chief of Police, was utterly unable to cope with the disorder which followed the operation of the Mission car lines. He was either unwilling to do his duty or incompetent to handle the situation. As Chief of Police he is still a greater failure.

Anderson has the reputation of being an honest man, but he lacks backbone and decision. He possesses neither ability nor moral courage. He almost openly sympathized with violence during the Mission riot, had it not been for the lawless and violent element. The bloodshed that followed was the inevitable consequence.

SUMMONS TO CALHOUN.

The Mayor's summons to Calhoun to meet Andrew Gallagher, the president of the Labor Council, his immediate appointment of Casey to the Board of Public Works, and the elevation of Anderson to the head of the police department had the inevitable consequence of provoking a demonstration on Labor Day. Of course whiffling did its part, but if the police had been prompt and efficient there would have been no disturbance worth complaining about.

Casey allowed the carmen's division to form in the vicinity of the car barns of the United Railroads and to counter-march out of the line of the regular line of march in front of the general offices of the company. There were jeers and calls for Calhoun and Mullally mingled with foul language from some of the marchers. This was a clear intimation of trouble which the police should have headed off. It should also have appealed to Mayor Taylor's Public Works Commissioner. But if the Grand Marshal and the Chief of Police desired a riot they could hardly have planned better.

Business men are unable to understand Taylor's queer tactics and his obliviousness to the necessity of maintaining order. They lay the blame for the bloodshed on Labor Day more at his door than at the door of the unions.

DAVID MITCHELL ON STAND DENIES ATTACK ON GIRL

Attorney David Mitchell took the witness stand today in his own behalf against the charges of Evelyn Walker who declares that he attacked her on November 17, 1905. Mitchell was asked by Attorney Frick for the defense if the alleged occurrence took place in his office on the day mentioned or at any other place and Mitchell answered no. He said that the Walker girl and Mrs. Flynn, then Bernice Brown, rapped at his office door. He opened it and said he was busy. Mitchell said they asked him if they could earn some money from him and he says he told them no and ordered them out and they left. Mitchell says he was busy with Mrs. Astor at the time the girls knocked

PIEDMONT WILL VOTE ON DISINCORPORATION

Town Is Sure to Go Out of Business, Because the People Want New Deal.

Tomorrow an election will be held in the town of Piedmont, which was organized only a few months ago, to vote upon the question of disincorporation. The proposition of town incorporation was originally broached by a small coterie of residents of the Piedmont district who were opposed to its annexation with the City of Oakland and no special effort was made to conceal the fact that its purpose was to defeat the annexation project.

ANTI-ANNEXATIONIST PROTEST.

When the city council was considering the ordinance for the annexation of Piedmont, Fruitvale, Milrose, Elmhurst and Elmhurst, some of the anti-annexationists of Piedmont visited the council chamber to protest against the inclusion of the district in the annexation ordinance. Hugh Craig acting as their spokesman. One of the reasons he assigned for their opposition to being annexed was that they wanted to remain under the beneficent influence of the Realty Syndicate which, he added, "has done so much for Piedmont." Their appeal to the council was, however, ineffective as Piedmont was included in the territory which it proposed to annex. They, therefore, took up the town incorporation project and persuaded the board of supervisors to call an election, which was held July 10. Of the 113 votes cast there were a sufficient number to carry the proposition and elect a board of town trustees, the argument being then used that after the election project had failed, disincorporation would follow.

THE ANNEXATION VOTE.

At the annexation election which was subsequently held it was clearly demonstrated that incorporation had prevailed through the indifference of a large number of voters in the district who neglected to visit the polls on town election day, for a big majority vote was cast in favor of annexation to Oakland. As annexation was defeated, however, in other districts in the territory which it was proposed to annex to the city, the existence of the town of Piedmont continued.

DISINCORPORATION MOVEMENT.

Subsequently a movement was started to disincorporate, in accordance with the program those favoring town incorporation as a means of defeating annexation had originally outlined. In compliance with the requirements of the law defining the procedure to be followed, a petition requesting the board of trustees to call an election for the purpose of voting on the question of disincorporation was circulated among the voters. It was signed by over eighty electors which was an excess of the required two-thirds of the voters who had cast their ballots at the last preceding election. It was submitted to the board of trustees, and the notice of publication for thirty days was duly ordered.

A CHANGE OF FRONT.

In the meantime, however, the anti-annexationists for whom Hugh Craig, now a member of the board of trustees, had acted as spokesman before the city council when they appeared as opponents against the inclusion of the Piedmont district in the call for an annexation election, and declared that they "wanted to remain under the beneficent influence of the Realty Syndicate which has done so much for Piedmont," have become enamored with the dignity and responsibilities of office and are loathe to relinquish them. They are, therefore, now opposing the proposition to disincorporate, although it was part of the program they formed to defeat annexation to Oakland by a temporary town incorporation.

MEETING OF ANTI.

A meeting of these anti-disincorporationists was held at Piedmont Park last night, at the opening of which only six persons were present, namely: Hugh Craig, James Donnelly, John B. Coop, Peter Govan, Captain W. Tyson and F. Dunne. All of these are engaged in business in San Francisco, and all excepting Mr. Coop declared themselves against disincorporation. Later on, Andrew Brown dropped in, but refrained from saying anything on the subject.

Craig said: "Real estate firms of wealthy backing own ninety per cent of the unimproved property of Piedmont. The town trustees have declared that they will reduce the tax rate upon improved property and raise the taxation upon unimproved property, shifting the burden of taxation upon these firms holding unimproved property at high prices for speculation."

"These same companies are looking forward to franchises of great value to them and have promised to swing the annexation of Piedmont at the coming election. They hope in this way to escape the taxation which would otherwise be placed upon them. If the city of Piedmont remains incorporated, with the power of fixing the tax rate delegated to the town trustees, as at present,"

"These rich real estate firms are trying to influence the voters to vote for disincorporation by using a pretext that Piedmont must come into Oakland or better sewer systems. This claim, as a matter of fact, is without foundation, for the city of Piedmont has a contract with the city of Oakland by which Piedmont's sewer line is connected with Oakland's sewer system. Oakland cannot do without Piedmont's connection, for it is the pressure afforded to the sewage running from Piedmont that flushes the Northern Oakland sewage to the bay along the level outfall around the east shore of Lake Merritt."

CRAIG'S ERRORS.

It was, course, understood that the real estate firm to whom reference was made is the Realty Syndicate, which, instead of owning ninety per cent of the unimproved property in Piedmont, owns only five per cent. Mr. Craig, moreover, in error in his statement that the town trustees contemplated a special method of assessing the property, as the law provides that in the case of towns of the class to which Piedmont belongs that the assessment shall be made by the county assessor. As to Piedmont's right to discharge its sewage into Oakland's sewer system it was acquired some years ago by the payment of a sum of money to the city of Oakland for the privilege with the reservation, however, that it would only be discontinued when it was deemed necessary in the judgment of the council. As a matter of fact, City Engineer Turner says it is impossible to discontinue the privilege to Piedmont, as the sewer into which Piedmont's sewage is now being discharged is becoming overloaded owing to the growth of population within the city limits. Whenever Piedmont is ordered to discharge its sewage into the Oakland sewer system it will have to bond itself, of course, to erect an outlet sewer to the bay of its own.

ACTOR LEAVES ALL TO WIDOW

Richard Mansfield's Estate Not as Large as Thought—Son Will Get Share.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The contents of the will left by Richard Mansfield have been made public here by Irving Dittenhofer, who was in charge of Mansfield's legal affairs. The entire estate, both real and personal, is left to Mrs. Mansfield, who is made the sole executrix.

As the will was made in 1894, which was before the birth of Mansfield's son, George Gibbs, the boy will take his share of the estate as if the actor died without a will. The will was probated Friday.

ESTATE IS DWINDLING.

Dittenhofer was unable to say much concerning the size of the estate, but is certain that it is much smaller than it was originally thought to be. The insurance on Mansfield's life, which was given as $250,000, turns out to be $50,000, of which goes to the widow and the remainder to the estate, the value of which is given as $50,000.

Dittenhofer said that for the last ten years all that Mansfield accumulated either in real or personal property, had been placed at once in the name of his wife. The house at 135 Riverside Drive, and the Connecticut farms all were transferred to Mrs. Mansfield immediately after the purchase of all the plays and manuscripts as well as all stock held by Mansfield in the Richard Mansfield Company, are left to the widow.

TICKET TO SWEDEN

CONCERN OWNER WORRIES

E. J. Anderson, of 615 Fourteenth street, is mourning the loss of a round trip ticket to Sweden which was stolen from him yesterday morning while he was going from the corner of Second street and Broadway to the corner of Second and Grove streets.

As soon as Anderson discovered his loss he hurried to police headquarters and reported the theft, but thus far no trace of the pick-pocket has been found. Anderson seemed to be greatly worried at the prospect of reporting his loss to his wife, who, he declared, had purchased the ticket for him.

"It cost $250, and I had made all my preparations to leave next week," said Anderson. "Yesterday morning I went out to say goodbye to a few friends, and while we were talking together some one stole my ticket."

ANOTHER MARAUDER.

E. J. Burg, of 1621 Hopkins street, in North Berkeley, reports to the police that last night at 12:20 o'clock an attempt was made by someone to enter his home. Burg, who was sleeping in the front hall, heard the marauder trying to effect an entrance through the front door, and, rising, he turned on the porch light. Then he heard the marauder run down the steps.

Hastily opening the door, Burg caught a glimpse of the man, and describes him as follows: About 20 years old, five feet seven inches high, light complexion, light mustache, dressed in a dark suit, with dark derby.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—The State encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans of California, held an exciting election yesterday to determine whom the assembly should recommend to Governor Gillett for appointment as a member of the board of directors of the veterans' home at Fountainebleau. Dr. W. J. Hanna of Sacramento defeated Major Sims of San Francisco, and it is understood that he will be appointed to the position at once.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Commander, Montgomery Moulton of San Diego; senior vice commander, William Conway of Vallejo; junior vice commander, S. W. COMMANDER STRICKEN.

The day's festivities were marred by the sudden illness of Colonel Edwin Bean, the commander of the veterans, who was stricken with paralysis as he arose from his bed at the Elks club this morning. His condition tonight is much improved and his recovery is hoped for. Colonel Bean was to have left yesterday for the national encampment as a representative of the California department.

The meeting adopted strong resolutions against the holding of picnics and other amusements on Memorial Day and endorsed Walter Hale of San Francisco for the position of national commander.

GROCER FINED $100 FOR SELLING LIQUOR

J. A. Wheeler, a grocerman at 1854 Telegraph avenue, was fined $100 by Judge Samuels this morning for selling liquor without a license. Wheeler was arrested by police officers who discovered liquor in his store and that he kept a small stock of wine and other intoxicants on his place, but he declared that he was not aware that he had to have a liquor license in order to sell to his customers. When sentence was pronounced he notified the court that he intended to take an appeal.

Is Regular Patient at Receiving Hospital

Joseph Corbett, a fruit peddler living at 473 Seventh street, was again a patient at the receiving hospital last night after a very few weeks.

Corbett tells of little something that causes his arm to come out of the socket. Last night about 9 o'clock he slipped and fell at his residence and dislocated his shoulder. He hurried to the hospital, where Ward on Page reduced the dislocation and cautioned Corbett to be easy on the strained ligaments.

MEN ONLY

We Cure the Cases That Others Cannot Cure.

A bold statement, but just as true as it is bold. Not all cases that others fail to cure are curable by our methods, but fully ninety per cent of them are. The way to learn whether your case is curable is to consult us. We know exactly what can be done in every instance. We guarantee that if we have done nothing else other than treat men's diseases for twenty years, if your case is curable we will treat you. If it isn't, we will not treat you and you so desire, WE WILL WAIT FOR OUR FREE UNTIL YOU ARE WELL.

WEAKNESS

Weakness in men is comparatively a simple ailment and is but a symptom of local disorder, a congestion of an important nerve center. No stimulant treatment, whether internal or locally applied, can do more than excite temporary activity. By our system of local treatment we restore absolutely normal conditions and cure the organs involved, which promptly results in complete and permanent restoration of strength and vigor. This treatment is original with us and is the only radical and certain cure yet devised.

VARICOCELE

Varicocele is a relaxation, knitting and twisting of the most vital blood vessels of the male organism. It stagnates the local circulation and interferes with the processes of waste and repair. It causes the degeneration of functions and injury to the general health. Most physicians recommend surgery, and a few recommend cauterization, but neither is a permanent and no ill effects whatever can follow our treatment.

EXAMINATION FREE

We offer not only free consultation and advice, but to every case that comes to us we will make a careful examination and diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about his trouble.

Hours: 9-4 and 7 to 9. Sunday, 9 to 12.

Quoting Scriptures

is a hazardous undertaking, unless you are able to cite your authority, verse, or verse. Coming down on the ear this morning a 100-year-old individual was handing out specimens of sacred writ as models of English diction, when he came to the well-known sentence, "The Lord tempereth the wind to the shorn lamb." "Hold on there," said his companion, "that is not from the Bible." You can imagine the confusion of our Biblical friend. All he could do was to utter speechless and stare into space. And not a soul within hearing could or would come to his rescue, nor did he look that phrase up. I wonder if Lehnhardt has a concordance; he has most everything that's good.

LEAGUE OF CROSS CADETS BAND ENGAGED FOR MUSIC

NEWARK, Sept. 4.—Interest continues unabated among the people of Newark and the surrounding country over the fiesta to be held at Newark Park on Admission Day. The young ladies of the candy stand are actively engaged in making preparations for their part in the affair. As the committee members are favorites among young and old, no "trouble" is anticipated by them in being able to dispose of their wares. Their stand is to be placed under a large tree, on the lawn of the grounds.

The young people are particularly pleased over the prospect of having the music furnished by the League of the Cross Cadets band, whose services have been secured. The favorable reports of this organization, which have reached this community have whetted public curiosity. The committee is particularly elated, as the members will be able to give Newark a musical treat by far exceeding anything which it has had for some time past.

One of the features that will greatly interest will be a swimming match between two young women. The principals are Miss Emma Wales and Miss Kate Delaney. Much has been made of swimming matches between

SEIBS IS DEAD; BIGGS ARRESTED

Alameda Man Injured by Automobile Last June Dies Now—Chauffeur Accused.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Henry Seibs of Alameda, who was hurt in an automobile accident in front of the Van Ness theater last June, and who has been lying between life and death at the St. Mary's hospital ever since, died this morning.

James Biggs, the chauffeur of the automobile which ran over Seibs, was arrested and charged at the city prison with manslaughter today.

6 MONTHS TO TRY THEM OUT

It was decided at the meeting of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners this morning that the candidates for the position of officers on the police force would have to show, after a period of probation, that they are men of the stuff of which good and serviceable officers are made.

"I think a man," said Mayor Mott, "ought to serve at least six months before he becomes a regular and permanent member of the police force."

Chief of Police Wilson said that officers in some Eastern cities were compelled to serve a period of probation before becoming full-fledged members of the force and that they did not receive full pay until after they had been on the force for several years.

"In New York City," he said, "they must serve five years before they receive the full pay of $1,400 a year."

POLICE ON PROBATION.

The subject was introduced by Commissioner Turner, who strongly favored the placing of men on probation before making them police officers in the full sense of the term.

Chief Wilson asked if that could be done under the charter.

Commissioner Turner replied that if the plan resulted in greater efficiency on the part of the police, there could be no objection to it.

SIX MONTHS' TRIAL.

It was finally decided that, hereafter, eligible candidates for the position of police officers would be required to serve six months on probation before being permitted to become active members of the police force.

Alleged Looter of Chinese Camp Captured After Search of Seven Hours.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—After laying in wait for their man from 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon until 9 o'clock last night, Policemen McPhee and Callahan succeeded in arresting Henry Reinhold and he was charged at the Potrero police station with battery and assault with a deadly weapon. The charges against Reinhold are made by Won-Deon and Di Ho, two Chinese who live in the camp at Hunter's Point.

They told the police that on several occasions small sums of money have been missing from several of the tents. The Chinese investigated and found that Reinhold, who lives in the neighborhood was responsible for the thefts. Last Saturday night, the next time he came to the camp, they accused him openly and, taking up a bottle of oil, he proceeded to chastise them on account of their accusations.

ASSAULT WITH OIL BOTTLE.

Don't receive a severe scalp wound and a badly lacerated nose, while Di Ho was treated to a broken jaw. The Chinese reported the matter to the Potrero station and McPhee and Callahan were detailed on the case.

Every time the officers went to Reinhold's house he succeeded in giving them the slip by hiding among the brush on the side of the hill. So yesterday they decided to lie in wait for him and after seven hours captured him as he was entering his house.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—James Watkins, a conductor of the United Railroads, who is accused of murdering John Peterson on Monday, swore out a warrant today, charging Bert Wallace with assault to murder.

Watkins alleges that when he took his car to the ferry after the trouble at Sausalito and Market streets, on Monday, Wallace threw a cobblestone through the window and just missed hitting him. Attorney O'Connor of the United Railroads will prosecute the case.

TELEGRAPHERS IN NEW JOBS

Girls go to Dry Goods Stores and Men to Become Railroad Operators.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—From now on the striking telegraph operators will seek temporary employment in other trades.

The 400 girls in this city started this morning to get employment in dry goods stores. The summer vacations are over, and they say they can easily find other employment. They will seek employment also as telephone operators.

Twenty of the men obtained other employment yesterday, and on October 1 next, when the eight-hour law goes into effect compelling railroads to make the shifts of eight hours each in twenty-two States, 500 men from New York and Chicago will become telegraphers on railroads.

TAKE NO ACTION.

Superintendent Brooks of the Western Union said yesterday: "The meeting of the directors on September 10 will take no action on the strike, and will simply transact routine business. The forty-five men from the different locals who are coming here to discuss arbitration might as well save expenses and remain where they are. Their coming will do them no good."

DECLARE TELEGRAPH COMPANIES DEFEATED

"We want a closed shop besides our eight hour day and our 25 per cent increase in wages," says the telegraphers of local 34.

The telegraphers refuse to work with non-union operators and they intend to make the closed-shop a vital issue in their fight, which they declare will last until they are recognized by the union. The telegraph companies are beaten already. The operators declare that they will not compromise and will insist on one step from their original schedule. They say they are out to win and will "stand pat" until they are victorious.

CHAUFFEUR FORFEITS BAIL.

H. S. Hill, a chauffeur, was arrested at the corner of Eleventh and Washington streets yesterday afternoon for violating the speed limit, and failed to appear in the police court this morning, forfeiting the $10 which he had deposited as bail.

Home, he found that his coat was missing, and with it the valuable papers and pin. The case was turned over to Detective Conlin and McGowan of the Harbor police station.

The engagement is announced today of Miss Christine Cameron, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Cameron of this city, to Ormel M. Rugg of New York.

The groom-elect is connected with the American National Bank of San Francisco, and occupies a prominent position in the financial world.

Miss Cameron has returned recently from a trip to the East. She is clever and accomplished, and has many friends here.

HURLS WOMAN FROM BUS TOP

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Paul Stein, a motorman, was arrested this morning about 3 o'clock on a charge of battery. Stein ran his car into the rear of a passenger bus on Valencia street and Hannah Leach was thrown to the ground and painfully wounded. In Judge Cabanis' court this morning, Stein was dismissed, and the case was dismissed. Judge Cabanis sentenced George Washington Davis, a waiter, to thirty days in the county jail for disturbing the peace. Davis was arrested by Policemen Kershner on East street at 3 o'clock this morning on complaint of two women, who said that they were insulted by him.

Unfair Tactics in Piedmont.

A small group of San Francisco business men residing in Piedmont are making a desperate effort to stay the movement to disincorporate. Hugh Craig is the leader of the opposition to disincorporation, as he was one of the champions of incorporation. The opposition to disincorporation is prompted, as was the original incorporation movement, by a desire to prevent the annexation of Piedmont to Oakland.

Nobody will dispute the right of Mr. Craig and his associates to take any position in regard to annexation and incorporation they see fit, but they exceed their right when they vilify Oakland, its government and inhabitants and grossly misrepresent the facts. They are arrayed against the interests and sentiment of a large majority of the inhabitants of Piedmont, being actuated solely by hostility to this city. As chairman of the Board of Town Trustees, Mr. Craig has placed every possible obstacle in the way of the people of Piedmont being given an opportunity to carry out their wish for annexation. Now he runs to a San Francisco paper with a silly fabrication to the effect that the movement to annex to Oakland is engineered by corporations to serve corporate interests. Every person familiar with the facts knows this is not true.

Mr. Craig is reported as saying:

"Real estate firms of wealthy backing own ninety per cent of the unimproved property of Piedmont. The Town Trustees have declared that they will reduce the tax rate upon improved property and raise the taxation upon unimproved property, shifting the burden of taxation upon those firms holding unimproved property at high prices for speculation."

"These same companies are looking forward to franchises of great value to them and have promised to swing the annexation of Piedmont at the coming election. They hope in this way to escape the taxation which would otherwise be placed upon them if the city of Piedmont remains incorporated, with the power of fixing the tax rate delegated to the Town Trustees, as at present."

"These rich real estate firms are trying to influence the voters in favor of disincorporation by using the pretext that Piedmont must come into Oakland for better sewer systems. This claim, as a matter of fact, is without foundation, for the city of Piedmont has a contract with the city of Oakland by which Piedmont's sewer line is connected with Oakland's sewer system. Oakland cannot do without Piedmont's connection, for it is the pressure afforded to the sewage running from Piedmont that flushes the northern Oakland sewage to the bay along the level outfall around the east shore of Lake Merritt."

The opening sentence of this statement is a wide departure from the truth. Property in Piedmont is assessed under the general law of the State by the County Assessor. If Piedmont were annexed to Oakland, the owners of unimproved property would have to pay more taxes than they do now. However, Mr. Craig's proposal to raise the assessments on unimproved property and lower the valuations for tax purposes on improved property does not ring of fairness. But it is a proposition that the other Trustees do not endorse.

Mr. Craig has another bugaboo in corporations alleged to be seeking franchises. He is obviously hitting at the Oakland Traction Company. If that corporation desires to build any more lines in Piedmont the people there are only too anxious to grant them franchises. The streets in Piedmont have been constructed almost exclusively by the real estate companies Mr. Craig holds in such horror. The other roads through the town were built and are maintained by the county. The town government has done literally nothing toward street improvement. It has only begun street sprinkling just as the rainy season is at hand. The county roads are sprinkled at the expense of the county. Piedmont owes the greater proportion of its prosperity and attractiveness to the enterprise of the corporations and real estate companies to which Mr. Craig has such an antipathy.

Piedmont is at the mercy of Oakland in the matter of sewage disposal. Mr. Craig makes a most disingenuous statement when he says Piedmont has a contract with the city of Oakland giving the town the right to use the city's sewers. Piedmont has a permit, but no contract. For the sum of $3000 the City Council granted Piedmont permission to sewer through Oakland mains till such time as the city sees fit to terminate the practice. The City Council can stop Piedmont from sewerage into Oakland mains at any moment, despite the assertion of Mr. Craig, and it will stop it if Mr. Craig and his associates have their way and continue to abuse and misrepresent this city.

At the recent annexation election a large majority of the citizens of Piedmont voted to incorporate with Oakland. The scheme was defeated, however, in the Fruitvale district. Mr. Craig is therefore standing in the way of the expressed wishes of his fellow townsman, and factiously opposing the plan to give Piedmont a better fire and lighting service, and a more effective system of street and sewer improvement. Annexation will be of far greater benefit to Piedmont than to Oakland, consequently it is strange to find intelligent men fighting advancement from sheer prejudice. But if they must be led by their prejudices they should at least stick to the truth and be fair to Oakland.

National Irrigation Congress.

One of the most notable public gatherings which have ever assembled at the State Capital, namely, the National Irrigation Congress, is at present in session there. This important body represents the thirteen States and three Territories for whose benefit Congress adopted the reclamation act of 1902, and these have sent to the Sacramento convention approximately two thousand delegates.

The great scheme of reclaiming over two million acres of the arid wastes of the West, which the Federal government has undertaken to carry out under the act of 1902, is the practical result of the agitation which the National Irrigation Congress began about fifteen years ago. This agitation was based on the rapid denudation of the forests which constitute the source of the water supply on which the irrigation systems in operation in California are dependent and on the experiences had in this State with irrigation as a reclaimer of desert land and as a potent agent in the highest development of the productive capacity of the soil and the perfection of crops in the semi-arid districts.

Most of the two million acres of arid land in these western States and Territories is included in the public domain, and a large proportion of this vast area is located at the two extremes of this State and in the neighboring States of Nevada and Oregon. The reclamation of those arid areas located on the Oregon-California border and in Nevada is dependent upon the conservation of the drainage of the adjacent forested ranges, and, therefore, upon the preservation of the timber which has not been invaded by the lumberman and the reforestation of land which he has denuded. Millions of dollars which Congress has wisely appropriated for the purpose are now being expended in the development of these reclamation systems and in the utilization of the waters of the Colorado and Gila rivers for the irrigation of the thirsty soil of the great southern desert. Private enterprise in this State has abundantly demonstrated the enormous value of irrigation. Under the influence of one of these enterprises and the intense cultivation of the soil which it has made possible a vast area of the barren arid waste lying at the southeastern corner of the State has been converted into what is rapidly developing into the most productive agricultural district on the Pacific Coast. It has, indeed, added one of the richest counties to the commonwealth out of a section of the desert which less than six years ago was incapable of supporting one human being. The vast plains of the central and southerly sections of the San Joaquin valley have, also, by similar processes in the hands of private enterprise, been converted from uncertain pastures for cattle and from the still more uncertain cultivation of any form of agricultural crops into highly productive vineyards, orchards and citrus groves and into the most valuable cattle farms in the West. These beneficent changes in the productive character of the soil have also brought into existence some of the most important industries which California now possesses and made possible the wealthy and populous communities now permanently established in the valley.

With these examples of the power of the conservation of the watersheds and the construction of irrigation systems on a scale which private enterprise could not attempt to carry out, the Federal government's irrigation plans were taken out of the domain of speculation and assured success at the very start. The time is, indeed, rapidly approaching when the desert areas which the government is now reclaiming will become scenes of great agricultural activity filled with a large and prosperous population, and adding immensely to the wealth of the several States and Territories specially concerned.

HOTEL PLANS
NEAR FINISH

Company Directors Re-elected and Money Situation in Good Shape.

Stockholders of the Oakland Hotel Company held an executive session yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the corporation's office, 512 Fourth street, and election of directors resulted in all members of the former board being re-elected. They are:

W. G. Garretts, Edwin R. Adams, W. G. Garretts, G. J. H. Adams, W. G. Garretts, Thomas Prather, D. E. Collins, H. C. Capwell and J. C. McMillan. All acts of the directors were ratified and approved.

The stockholders were evidently pleased, as Walter J. Matthews, the prevailing architect, stretched out before them on a large table the plans for the palatial hotel to be erected at the corner of Ninth and Clay streets, between Harrison, Fourteenth and Allen streets, taking in a whole block. The plans were drawn by J. J. Hardenbergh, an architect of New York.

NEAR $2,000,000
The Oakland hotel will cost in the neighborhood of $2,000,000, and large gangs of men are now at work on the site engaged in mammoth excavations.

It will be good news to the people of Oakland and those who have Oakland's interest at heart to know that all details for this huge structure are nearing completion.

Several stockholders expressed themselves in favor of giving the contract into the hands of one large contracting firm instead of sub-contracting the work to different contractors. Such a procedure, they thought, would be more systematic and economical. Many of the large steel and reinforced concrete buildings now in course of erection at San Francisco are under the responsibility of just one contractor.

The ground, costing about $200,000, has been paid for there is a large cash surplus in the bank more than sufficient to meet all present expenses, and with the issue in the immediate future of bonds to the amount of $750,000, the money situation of the enterprise is exceedingly gratifying.

DESERTED HORSES AND BUGGY HELD BY POLICE

Two stray horses are being held by the police until their owners claim them. A small bay horse, hitched to a buggy, was captured by Patrolman Smith at the corner of Ninth and Clay streets this morning after it had stood on the corner nearly all night. The horse and the buggy were placed in the Ninth street stable.

G. W. Edwards, Second and Franklin streets, found a dark bay horse, with a harness on it, on Franklin street yesterday. The animal was placed in a livery stable at the foot of Franklin street.

ASSESSMENTS ARE INCREASED

Many Thousands of Dollars Added to Tax Roll by City Equalizers.

The City Council sitting as a Board of Equalization last night, in accordance with the petition of Assessor George E. Grose, increased the assessments on two pieces of property owned by Margaret Ball and Charles Jurgens. One piece is lots 1 and 2, block 218, Caspers tract, on which the assessment was $15,000, on the Fifteenth street frontage. It was increased to $25,000. The other piece is lots 3 and 4, block 218, Caspers tract, assessed at $15,000, were raised to $25,000. Both property owners were notified by Assessor Grose as satisfied with the increased assessment, and neither of them appeared before the Council.

J. P. Kaelin, who sold the lot 7675 at southeast corner of Ninth and Clay street for $40,000, a mortgage for $20,000, had been assessed $22,125 on the property, as he has to pay the taxes. His assessment was reduced to $15,000.

WANTS INCREASE
Assessor Grose recommended that the assessment be increased to $24,000. Kaelin appeared before the Equalizers and said that he had sold the property for $40,000, receiving $14,000 in cash and a $25,000 mortgage. Still, he didn't think the property is worth $25,000.

Kaelin's application for a reduction was denied, and the assessment was increased to $24,000.

REDUCTIONS MADE
L. H. Wakefield was granted reductions of assessment of from $5,500 to $5,000, and from $2,200 to $2,000.

T. H. Downing's assessment on property at Ninth and Twenty-first street, was reduced from $5,400 to $4,900. He had asked for a reduction to $3,000. It appeared that Downing had been remodeling a barn into a house at the time the assessment was made.

F. H. Bruning was granted reductions on lot 12, block 288, from $5,250 to $4,000. O. Juddel was granted reduction on lot 22, block 12, Santa Fe tract No. 4, from $1,200 to $400.

STRIKE OUT ASSESSMENT
The assessment of $1,400 on personal property to L. Pederson, was ordered stricken off the roll.

The application of J. P. Wohlstrom for reduction of assessment on four lots in block 170 from $30,000 to $20,000, was denied.

Thomas Rowan was granted a reduction of assessment to $500 on lot and $150 on improvements on his creek lot on Maple street, in Humboldt Park tract.

Patrick McDonald was granted reductions from $1,700 to $800, and from $3,125 to $1,500.

The application of Anthony H. Simpson for reduction from $2,800 to $2,400 on lot 22, block 708, was denied.

SOLDIER WOULD DIE FOR LOVE

Shoots Himself in Presence of Frigid Sweetheart Who Jilts Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—Because Mabel Johnson refused to marry him, Herbert Bowdish, a private in the Sixtieth company field artillery, tried to kill himself last night at the foot of his frigid sweetheart in the Presidio officers' row.

Miss Johnson is a maid in the service of Mrs. Samuel D. McAllister, wife of Captain McAllister, and it was in the garden of the McAllister quarters at the Presidio that the attempted suicide took place. Bowdish fired four shots, the fourth one being the only one that hit the mark. The shooting aroused all the officers in that section of the post and caused a sensation among the families there.

Bowdish had been paying attention to the pretty maid for several months, and time and again he had pleaded with her to marry him. His attention finally became so disagreeable to her that she wrote him a note last Saturday, telling him his importunities were disagreeable to her.

IN A RAGE.

Early last evening Bowdish appeared at the kitchen door of the McAllister home. He was in a rage, and as the object of his love opened the door in response to his heavy knock, he shouted: "Mabel, unless you promise to marry me I'll shoot myself into a hundred pieces."

He then fired three more shots in rapid succession, the last one hitting him in the head just back of the right ear.

The girl's scream, followed by the shots, brought Captain McAllister from his front room, where he was sitting.

Armed with his sword he dashed through the house to the rear. Opening the door he ran down the steps, and there, lying in a pool of blood, the loveless, disappointed soldier.

IS UNCONSCIOUS.

The wounded man was unconscious. He was hurried down to the general hospital at the Presidio, where Dr. H. H. Rutherford extracted the bullet. Although severely wounded the surgeon says there is a chance for his recovery.

During the operation Bowdish constantly called for "Mabel," and later he told Dr. Rutherford he intended to shoot himself again as soon as he got out of the hospital, and next time, he said, he would be successful.

"I cannot live without Mabel, and that is all there is to it," he said.

Miss Johnson was upset by the incident, but refused to go to the hospital to see the man who had tried to end his life because she refused to accept his love.

Bowdish is only twenty-one years old, and during the year that he has been in the service always has conducted himself well and has made many friends among his comrades.

MOTHERHOOD

MRS. DANIEL SULLIVAN

Unquestionably preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism and renders it perfectly normal.

A woman in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution. Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sullivan, 589 E. 7th Street, Flatbush, N. Y.

"What a blessing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is to motherhood. I send you a picture of my three months' old baby and myself, and the photo shows the splendid condition of our health. That I am so well and the baby so healthy and happy is entirely due to your excellent remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it for five months before baby came and it brought me an easy confinement and kept me strong, whereas I was weak and in perfectly miserable health all the time when my first three children were born."

Mrs. Geo. Walters of Woodlawn, Ill., also writes:

"I feel it my duty to tell of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me and to recommend it to all expect-tant mothers to insure a healthy child and easy birth. I had lost three children and was discouraged when a friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and it not only kept me well and strong, but I have a healthy child as you will observe. I hope other discouraged women may read this letter and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be benefited by it as I have been."

Women should remember that for more than thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been without a rival in sustaining woman's health and curing all those painful ailments peculiar to her sex. Its record shows that it has cured almost every form of female complaint, organic troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacements and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the periods of child-birth and change of life. It cures backache and all those bearing down sensations.

If there is anything about your case you do not understand write to Mrs. E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is absolutely free. Thousands of women have done so and have received help.

3 TIMES MARRIED TO SAME WOMAN

IS THE RECORD OF
THIS ARTIST

Wife Always Knew That He Would Come Back.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 4.—Elliot J. Perry, a portrait painter, has been married for the third time to the same young woman. The wedding took place at the home of a friend in this city.

Perry was married eight years ago, when he was twenty years old, to Miss Whinnie Philpot of Humboldt, Neb., who was then eighteen years old. She and her husband had been playmates in childhood.

The day after the wedding it was found that the marriage ceremony was illegal, as the license had been obtained in Pawnee county. Perry had taken that means of preventing his friends from knowing that he was to be married. Another license was obtained, and they were married a second time.

Young Perry began to study art, and was helped to some extent by his wife's father, who is a banker at Humboldt. He was unable to earn much money at first, and finally decided that he would go to Paris to study. His father-in-law objected, and would not advance any money to him.

WENT TO PARIS.

Although many difficulties were in the way, Perry went to Paris. He left home without money, but earned enough to live on. He was absent five years, and when he returned home he learned that his wife had obtained a divorce. For a time while in Paris he had heard from his wife regularly and then the letters ceased.

When Perry came back he sought his wife and found her. She told him she had got the divorce at the instigation of her relatives, who desired that she marry a rich man, but this she refused to do. She told her divorced husband she was willing to marry him again.

Mrs. Perry told him she had waited patiently for him to come back to her. She says she knew he would come, and although she wrote letters to him regularly, she was not surprised at not hearing from him after she had been divorced. She did not know that her letters had not been received by him.

Perry realized before he went to Paris that he was not much of an artist. He believed he had ability and wanted to give himself a trial. Since he came back he has painted one portrait for which he received $1500, and has orders for more work.

Perry and his wife will probably go East, and next year he will take his wife to Paris to see the scene of his struggles there.

Mistress of the $10 Dinner Dog

Mrs. Leslie Carter

Ten and a half dollars is not a tremendously large sum in these days of millionaires, multi and paper but it does represent an income larger than many an East Side family breadwinner earns during an entire week. This tells about an English bulldog whose mistress paid some $10 for a single dinner for him.

Another point worthy of interest is that his lordship, the dog ate the expensive dinner at the most exclusive of Philadelphia hotels. The ordinary wage-earner would be barred from the dining room.

The dog, whose name is Dimple, is the property of Mrs. Leslie Carter-Payne, a former actress.

Dimple is an important member of the Carter family. He is called Dimple, his mistress explains, because he is small. Of course he is ugly, but ugliness is an attraction in a bulldog.

HAS A VALET.

Dimple has a valet. A sixteen-year-old youth named Kelly acts in this capacity. He puts Dimple to bed, assists him when he arises, washes him, combs his hair, walks respectfully behind him when his dogship goes for an airing and waits upon it at the table.

Kelly is properly dressed for his part. He wears correct English liv-

Dimple did justice to everything. He did not drink champagne—he is not educated up to that yet—but he imbibed quantities of filtered water.

very, including skin tight knee breeches. When they appear on the street every one recognizes that Dimple is the master and Kelly the man.

Dimple enjoyed himself so thoroughly in Philadelphia that his mistress decided that he should have a farewell dinner. A course banquet on the hotel plate was considered the proper thing for this dog aristocrat. This was ordered.

Mrs. Carter called the chef and with his aid carefully selected the menu. Then, while Kelly manuevered Dimple's claws and otherwise got him in readiness, the dinner was prepared.

First the imperturbable waiter brought in soup. Then the fish was served. Next came boiled lamb. Then were peas on the side and corn cut from the cob and covered with gravy.

Catnip Sells the Best of Her Herbs

An old German woman in town makes a living by selling herbs which she warrants to cure all the ills that flesh is heir to. She has many regular customers to whom she goes semi-weekly, carrying a fresh stock of catnip, pennyroyal, thoroughwort, mullein or whatever the customer desires.

Perhaps the greatest seller is catnip, which is in demand for catnip tea for both babies and pet cats. Just now she says there is a great scarcity of catnip owing to the season having been so dry.

Mullein, the old woman asserts, is good for rheumatism. The leaves are first steeped in white wine and the decoction is used as a liniment. The pain should disappear as if by magic.

Mr. Schwab has not a very high opinion of woman and her possibilities. He respects her and his attitude toward her is one of charity, but it is the attitude of 600 years ago, says Beatrice Fairfax.

He regards her as fitted only to bear children and keep house in such a manner as to make some fortunate man comfortable.

She is famous as being the best housekeeper in the world. No one can deny her capabilities as a mother, and she certainly has many outside interests.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

Mrs. Victor H. Metcalf, who has been spending several weeks here quietly as the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, was the motif for an informal gathering yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edson Adams. The affair was in the nature of a farewell, since Mrs. Metcalf leaves this evening, accompanied by Secretary Metcalf, for her home in Washington.

Mrs. Metcalf has not accepted any elaborate social favors during her visit and the few informal afternoons have been enjoyed only by her closest friends.

A Queen's Precept

Queen Alexandra takes womanly pleasure in feminine and domestic accomplishments, and is deeply interested in all matters that affect the health and well-being of the middle and lower classes. Her tastes, like those of the King, are exceedingly simple, and she believes that every person in the ordinary walks of life should know how to cook a dinner and manage a baby.

The Queen has always been a lover of home and family; her devotion to her late father is a matter of history, and her constant attachment to brother and sisters is equally well known. It follows naturally that her interests are closely bound up with those of her brother, King George of Greece, about whom we have recently heard so much in connection with the current growing industry of his gallant little country.

Tired of Being "Hermit" And Wants a New Hat

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The late Dunne school board, with its notorious "talk tests" and other tactics of procrastination, was charged yesterday with being the cause of preventing Miss Mary Lork, 203 West Sixty-fifth street, from buying a new hat in three years.

Miss Lork, who on Monday night appealed to the buildings and grounds committee of the board of education to help to regain complete possession of her property, which is involved in condemnation proceedings for school purposes, said she is tired of "existing" like a hermit.

She demands that, on account of the delay caused by the Dunne school board, the members of which originally selected her land and two frame houses at once or take the property out of the courts so she can get tenants and an income with which to support herself and her aged father.

UNABLE TO RETAIN TENANTS.

"I have been stunting myself in every way to keep things going," Miss Lork said. "Why, just think, I haven't been able to buy a new hat in three years. I have my taxes to pay and my only source of income is from this property. My old

This Woman Angrily Reads Riot Act To School Board

Miss Lork's property has a thirty-four foot frontage and is 150 feet deep, extending back to the yard of the Brownell school. There is a two story frame building in front and a all frame building in the rear.

She declares she has lost nearly $100 a year in rents since the condemnation proceedings began, and that her taxes and insurance amount to $55 a year.

Her father, Henry Lork, is 86 years old. He is cared for at the Home for the Aged, 5148 Prairie avenue, conducted by the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Concerning Women In Science, Art, Literature, Charity and Business.

Two women, at least, are in public office in Texas, both having been put there by men's votes. Miss Zena Dalrymple was elected county and district clerk for Uvalde county and Mrs. Mary C. Cope for Fannin county.

Miss Ney, a well-known sculptor of Texas, is a lineal descendant of Marshal Ney. True to her principles, she made the opening address at a meeting of the legislature to consider the amendment to grant full suffrage to women.

Mme. Isabelle Bisland, an explorer famous in geographical societies all over the world, has had the cross of the Legion of Honor bestowed on her by the French government for the services which she rendered to French geographical science by exploring the desert of Gobi in China.

Mrs. Lottie Thompson, a rich widow of Grand Junction, Col., has adopted a young Ute Indian as her son and heir. She saw the lad recently and was struck with his intelligence. He had no parents and the widow offered him a home. The boy is known under the name of Earl Dennis and is 13 years old.

Through Bargain and It All Ends Well

The Chicago representative of the Courier-Journal Book Printing Company, having an office at 171 La Salle street, lived there also. Four years ago they were introduced, and Richardson says it was love at first sight with him. But they had a misunderstanding. For nearly a year they saw nothing of each other. Then Richardson finally decided to forget Miss Cooley and leave La Grange.

HERE'S THE BARGAIN.

But here is where the bargain sale appeared above the horizon. To live in La Grange means to own a commutation ticket. Miss Cooley, hearing Richardson was going to leave La Grange, dropped him a little note offering to buy whatever rides he owned.

Richardson went to sell, but Miss Cooley did not get her bargain. Instead she got her husband.

"It's all settled now," said Miss Cooley yesterday afternoon. "Mr. Richardson and I will be married late in September, probably on the 29th."

"It wasn't an easy job," admitted Richardson, who hails from Maryland. "When I first got in the game there was a college professor racing out there about nine evenings in every week, and I had a strong uphill fight. Her grandfather, a Congregational minister, over 90 years old, is going to perform the ceremony."

Schwab's Ideas, Says This Woman, Are Those of 600 Years Ago

Mr. Schwab has not a very high opinion of woman and her possibilities. He respects her and his attitude toward her is one of charity, but it is the attitude of 600 years ago, says Beatrice Fairfax.

He regards her as fitted only to bear children and keep house in such a manner as to make some fortunate man comfortable.

Not for a minute is it denied that matrimony and motherhood are the best of all careers for a woman, but unless she is intelligent she can not fill either role properly.

She will make a happy home if she knows something about the domestic arts, but the average American woman is unable of being up on more than one branch of knowledge. She is famous as being the best housekeeper in the world. No one can deny her capabilities as a mother, and she certainly has many outside interests.

Those interests in some phases of club life can be carried on to an extreme, but the average woman manages to steer clear of shoals, either domestic or social.

The business girl with her thorough appreciation of money values is fitted to be a most capable and economical wife. She realizes that money is hard to earn and is too wise to fritter it thoughtlessly.

Many a professional man owes much of his success to the tact and culture of his wife.

For those whose lack of education prevents them from assuming a more responsible position domestic service is an excellent and honorable way of earning a living.

If we had enough public schools, every girl in the land would have the benefit of a first-class, practical education. Some day, perhaps, the happy hour will arrive when every girl will be fitted to occupy whatever position she most inclines toward.

HOME OR A CAREER

$20---FOR THE BEST ANSWER---$20

Believes Every Woman Intended for Vocation

Every woman born has a vocation, whether for a home, business career, or religious life.

Like a skillful architect who designs a magnificent building and fashions each stone for the place it is to occupy, so the Almighty has created his world of women, and each one of them has her position in that world.

Who Do You Think Is Right?

Here is a chance for the women readers of the woman's page of THE TRIBUNE.

Charles M. Schwab, the millionaire steel man, says that the sphere of a woman begins at home.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, society leader and brilliant leader of fashion, says the sphere of a woman is where she chooses to make it.

Mr. Schwab says that marriage is always the goal of woman, and Mrs. Fish says marriage is a minor consideration to a career.

WHICH OF THE TWO DO YOU BELIEVE IS RIGHT?

THE TRIBUNE will pay $20 for the best letter on this subject. Send in your opinion. The contest will remain open until September 15. Write plainly on one side of the paper, and write clearly, limiting your letter to one hundred words.

Happy Home the Best Place on the Earth

Home or career—this is a question which every woman must decide for herself. First learn yourself.

These questions, conscientiously answered, should decide:

Am I happier at home or away?
Can I do all that is weighing on my mind alone, or do I need help to accomplish it?

Most women find they are far happier at home if their choice of help is permitted to help them. Otherwise, they seek a career, or, what is worse, accept a helpmeet that never can help them.

A happy home is the best place on earth.

So may God help every girl to fit herself for a happy home.

DECLARES CITY FACES DANGER

Committee Thinks Garbage Incinerator Necessary to Prevent Early Epidemic.

Declaring that the city is in great danger of an epidemic on account of unsanitary conditions created by the dumping of garbage in various sections of the municipality, the garbage committee of the Board of Health submitted a communication to the Council last night proposing that a modern garbage incinerator be installed in the city under the supervision of the Board of Health. The communication follows:

The committee on garbage has made a thorough investigation and finds that the present system of caring for the garbage consists of dumping it in various sections of the city, creating unsanitary and dangerous hygienic conditions.

We would respectfully suggest that immediate attention be given this subject as the city is in great danger of an epidemic.

We would further suggest that the present system be discarded, and that a modern sanitary incinerator of sufficient capacity be purchased, to be operated by the city, and that the Board of Health be given supervision of the same, as well as collection of the garbage, with powers to make penalties for infraction of its orders.

SUGGESTS CITY OWNERSHIP.

"We fully believe, after careful consideration, that it is the duty of the city to own and operate its incinerating plant and to collect its garbage. Too great stress cannot be placed on the necessity of immediate action in this matter, as it is a well-known fact that a city cannot long exist under the present condition in which it is found without serious danger to the health of the community."

"CHAS. A. DUKE, Chairman."

The communication was referred to the garbage committee, Mayor and Board of Works to formulate a report to the Council.

IN SANITARY DISTRICTS.

The Council met at the Golden Gate and the Adeline Sanitary districts last evening. In each case the minutes of the previous meetings of the districts were read and approved and motions to adjourn adopted, without further consideration of business.

Having lately refused an offer of $75-for his rights as author of "The Man of the Hour," which is at the Macdonmoved to tell the story of his life.

In his boyhood in England he won a prize in school for passing a perfect examination in the prayer book. "Form," only sixteen, his parents decided then and there that he was to enter the church. The Bishop of the diocese, who later became celebrated as the Archbishop of York, asked the young hopeful to dinner. At the appointed hour he was driven to the Episcopal Palace in a carriage with outsiders, and had the honor at the table of sitting at the right of my lord bishop. It was too much for a boy with sense of humor. He ran away from home next day and came to America by steamer.

On landing he took the train for Chicago, arriving on Saturday. In the Sunday paper he found an advertisement for a boy to take a place in the Board of Trade, and early next day secured the position.

SALARIES ON OCTOBER 1

Ordinance Is Passed to Print After Pres- ident Elliott Declares it Has Not Been Fully Considered.

A spirited passage-at-arms between President Elliott and the other members of the Council preceded the passage to print of an ordinance providing for increases in the salaries of a number of employees in the municipal departments.
The Council went into executive session to give the ordinance a final consideration and when the doors were thrown open Chairman Elliott immediately expressed himself as opposed to the passage of the ordinance on the ground that he believed it had not been given due consideration.

President Elliott—"When I spend other people's money I want to do it with a great deal of serious consideration. I am not prepared to vote on this ordinance tonight. We spend whole evenings on the granting of saloon licenses and many eloquent speeches are made on the subject by members of the Council. I believe that we should not pass an ordinance of such importance to print without devoting a great deal more time and study to it."

FOR BIGGER SALARIES.
Councilman Kilworth—"I want to say justice to the Council that this ordinance has been considered on two previous occasions during the past two months by the Finance Committee and the Mayor, and we have taken it up again tonight. Many of the city officials have applied for increased salaries and I believe that they should have them. I think that the chairman has misunderstood the conditions which surround the reading of this ordinance. During his absence this summer the members of the Ordinance Committee devoted a great deal of careful study and investigation to the matter and we are now prepared to act on the results."

Councilman Burns—"The chairman surprises me by objecting to the adoption of this ordinance at this time when he did not make any statement of his objections heretofore."

President Elliott—"I spoke for myself only and did not intend to criticize the other members of the Council. I personally am not conversant enough with the positions affected to vote for the salary increases at this time."

The ordinance was then passed to print by a vote of 10 to 1, President Elliott voting no.

ALL ARE RAISED.
The city electrician called attention to the fact that every man in his department had received a raise of 10 per cent in salary except one, a lineman, who is receiving only $110 a month. An amendment was adopted providing that the sal-

CIRCUS PARADE ON MONDAY

Something entirely novel and original in the nature of a circus parade will be presented in Oakland on Monday, September 3, when Ringling Brothers bring their famous organization here for an engagement of two days commencing Sunday, September 3.

As in the past the parade will far exceed that of any other show in variety, length and the splendor of its dress and appointment. Absolutely novel in its main charm this year, any number of unique surprises presenting themselves in the three long miles of spectacle.
From the recently imported golden sand chariot with its thirty white horses in the lead to a mellow string-piped music wagon, on the tail end, there is nothing old to be seen and everything glitters with the gold and tinsel of fresh manufacture.

The peoples of a hundred nations from the low-browed savages of the Australian bush to the sphinx-like maidens of the Turkish harem; Persian court women in the richest of Oriental costumes; barbarian musicians, knights and brigands, some riding on horses and others in richly draped howdahs present an especially attractive section of the parade.
As in the past, many of the cages will be thrown open to the public, and the men are to be found in the menagerie of any other circus.

A featured segment of the heroes of childlore, artistically grouped on floating cars and drawn by Hippopotamus ponies in silver-drawn harness, is an artistic conception arranged especially for the Children's Military and mounted bands, chimes, pipes, banjo and orchestra, trees and various stringed instruments will furnish a variety of music and nearly 1,400 people, dressed in the finest of silk and broadcloth, 600 horses in rich trappings and more than one-half the elephants in America will be seen in the line.

The Range That Will Last a Lifetime

The Garland Malleable Range is made of extra heavy polished steel, lined with asbestos board. Every piece of iron is malleable and non-breakable. Fire box is small, economizing on fuel. Direct draft damper. Fire can be quickly started and quickly checked.
Oven is ventilated, preventing bread or cake from becoming soggy. Thermometer on oven door indicates even temperature at all times.

BANK PROPOSES TO CANCEL COUPONS ON PARK BONDS

Matter Affects First Installment of Interest—Santa Fe Franchise Ordinance Approved by Mayor.

A communication was read at the City Council meeting last night from the Oakland Bank of Savings proposing that the coupons on the park bonds, representing the first installment of interest, due July 15, 1907, be cancelled in consideration of the fact that according to the agreement the bank was to pay the accrued interest on the bonds as part of the purchase price, and that the interest accrued on account of the first installment of interest, represented by the coupons due on July 15, 1907, might be paid by the bank on the surrender of the coupons.

Councilman Pendleton introduced a resolution providing that the proposal of the bank be adopted, with the understanding that the bank pay the accrued interest on the coupons due January 15, 1908, representing the second installment of interest on the bonds.

The resolution does not involve any change in the substance of the terms of sale, for the turning over of the coupons to the bank and the surrender of the same back to the city in payment of the interest represented, would be an ad idem form.

ORDINANCES APPROVED.

A message was read from Mayor Mott stating that he had approved an ordinance granting to the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company a franchise to operate a railroad on Twentieth street; also an ordinance appropriating $1000 for a concrete culvert across Cemetery Creek; also an ordinance appropriating $500 for improving Grand avenue and paying assessment for storm sewer in Pleasant Hill storm sewer, establishing wooden curb grades on East Eighth street; authorizing the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids and award contract for repair of Webster street pier; establishing grades on East Twenty-fourth street, between Nineteenth and Seventeenth streets; closing and abandoning Cornfield and English streets; ordering the extending of Adams street; naming certain streets and changing names of others; prohibiting defrauding of persons owning or operating automobiles, cabs, hacks and other vehicles.

POLICE REPORT.

The Chief of Police submitted a report showing that his patrolmen in August had found 312 liquor saloons in Oakland.

The poundmaster for August reported 374 dogs impounded, 58 redeemed, 12 sold, 219 killed. Total cash receipts, $1212.

FOR PERMANENT SALARIES.

The Council passed to print an ordinance authorizing the appointment of a Captain of Detectives at a salary of $175 per month, two electrical inspectors and two deputy building inspectors at a salary of $150 a month each, a deputy superintendent of streets at a salary of $150 a month, another deputy superintendent of streets at a salary of $150 per month, an assistant secretary of the Board of Works at a salary of $150 per month, a clerk of the Board of Works at $150 per month, also four other clerks at $125 per month each, and a clerk and stenographer at $100 a month. appropriating $25,000 for improving the eastern sixty-one feet of the boulevard on the eastern shore of Lake Merritt, from East Eighteenth to Lake avenue.

TO INCREASE SALARIES.

An ordinance was introduced and referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee fixing the salary of each and every engineer of the Fire Department at $150 per month.

An ordinance was introduced amending the ordinance relating to defacing of buildings, etc., whereby it is proposed to prohibit the practice of distributing by hand or otherwise any show bills, or any advertising placards, upon any sidewalk, street, square or other public place.

LAKE SHORE FRANCHISE.

An ordinance granting the Oakland Traction Company a street car franchise on Lake Shore avenue from Walla Vista avenue to Lake Park avenue and along Lake Park avenue to a private right of way leading to Grand avenue and down Grand avenue to the Oakland Traction Company's tracks, was finally passed by the City Council last evening.

The final passage of an ordinance authorizing the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids to construct a culvert in Temescal Creek at West street, and appropriating $3000 therefor was made.

When the application of the Barber Asphalt Company for an extension of sixty days to pave East Fourteenth street from Thirteenth avenue to the eastern boundary of the city was brought up, Councilman Attkin offered an amendment reducing the extension to ten days. A Thanksgiving Sale At "The Owl" Stores

THE OWL gives thanks. A recent event has made this a period of real thanksgiving for us. We started the month of April last year at the very high-tide of our prosperity and progress, with eight well established stores, all doing a tremendous volume of business. Then came the San Francisco fire—five stores, and our large warehouse and laboratory, all were a total loss. It was a case of "down but not out," for "The Owl." We set to work at once to build up what was destroyed, and we have more than done it. In a little more than a year's time "The Owl" is stronger and greater than ever. Eight stores, all good ones, even better than we had before. "The Owl's" eighth store has just been added to the family. Last month on the corner of San Pablo Ave. and 16th St., "The Owl" opened its eighth and grandest store. To celebrate this event, and to make known the thankfulness that is ours, we will inaugurate, for this week and next week, a THANKSGIVING SALE in every "Owl" Drug Store in California. That it will be a success is unquestionable. Read the prices—You know "Owl" quality. The items are selected so as to reach every class. See how the prices shout aloud. NOT GOOD AFTER SEPT. 13, 1907.

It was stated in Sunday's TRIBUNE that Mrs. R. A. Hammond was a candidate in THE TRIBUNE's Great $10,000 Prize Contest. It is Mrs. Richard H. Hammond, of 920 Eighth street, who is the contestant for the Rambler touring car. A clerical error was responsible for the wrong initial letter. Mrs. Richard H. Hammond has a very wide circle of friends who are rallying to her support. The subscriptions of Mrs. J. T. Moran and that of Mrs. T. P. Hogan, each for a year were received today. This gives Mrs. Hammond an excellent start.

OTHER CANDIDATES ENTER.
A number of other entries have been received. The friends of "Pop" Ingersoll are enthusiastic in regard to his candidacy, and promise to make things move along very lively. This is the time to send in nominations. The persons nominating the winning candidates will also receive prizes. Why not send in the nominations of some friends and see that they are winners, thereby securing a cash prize for yourself?
The desire of the candidates who have already entered their names to compete in THE TRIBUNE'S Great $10,000 Prize Contest is to get in and win.
This desire is actuated by the fact that these candidates possess the necessary energy and business ability which, if put into action, will prove their merits and lead them on to victory.

PERSISTENCE AND TACT.
All that is needed is persistence combined with tact, knowing when to take advantage of the opportunity and sticking when the iron is hot.
After school hours, after a hard day's work, to get out among your friends and enlist them in your behalf will prove the very thing to get the day's work off your mind.

SPEND TIME PROFITABLY.
Instead of losing that time it can be put in very profitably securing a business experience which will be lasting and an experience had it been gotten by others who have been successful to some degree, would have proven a boon to them today.

CAN SUCCEED, OTHERS HAVE.
You are just as capable as any one else and have the same facilities bestowed upon others, so why is it that you can not develop them?
If you have not already entered your name send it in now and start out in earnest to win the Grand Capital Prize, the Rambler touring car.
Hustle should be the password in any campaign where energy is required to make it a success, and especially where your competitors are exerting every effort to win out over you in this battle of ballots.

DON'T SAY YOU CANT.
Because you can if you make up your mind. Set about it in the right manner. Make up your mind that you want one of these prizes, then write or call on the Contest Manager and get the necessary information and blanks, which we will gladly give, and LET HIM TELL YOU THE EASIEST WAY TO WIN ONE OF THE PRIZES.
The candidate who works steadily and earnestly and makes daily gains is the one who is most likely to win in the end.
DO NOT BECOME DISCOURAGED.
Not a single contestant should become discouraged, as the start has just begun and with just a little work and an extra energetic campaign among your numerous friends and acquaintances you can pull enough votes to put you on easy street and the sailing from now until the end will be easy.

FRIENDS CALL EVERY DAY
And inquire if so and so is in the contest and if she intends winning, and if so to please credit the votes entitled on a subscription to her.
Many votes are cast each day for the candidates by friends who are interested in them and who are desirous of seeing them win.

MERIT WINS EVERY TIME.
Just prove to your friends that THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE is the greatest evening newspaper on the coast, as one of their first proofs would be the Grand Prize Contest in which prizes to the number of forty are given and to the value of $10,000 are given.

A COUPON EACH DAY.
A coupon will appear in the paper every day which will be good for one vote, and will count for the contestant whose name appears on it. Thousands of votes can be gained by having all your friends save these coupons and in a very short while a few thousand can be collected from them. One thousand of these coupons will count as a six months' new subscription. These coupons must be clipped neatly from the paper and either voted or sent to the Contest Department in flat packages, otherwise they will not be counted, as it takes quite a great deal of time to count thousands of these votes every day. Do not roll or fold them up.

Get busy and do not allow some

WHO ARE THE CONTESTANTS?
Many industries have been received at the office of THE TRIBUNE contest. Various people would like to know who the contestants are, as they have been saving the nomination coupons clipped from the paper. Those who are nominated early in the contest will have a little advantage in that they will obtain many of these coupons and also the promise of the publisher's subscription. With most people prizes are as good as the money, and it would be a good idea for those intending to take an active part in the contest to obtain all the promises possible.

LIST TO BE PRINTED SUNDAY.
The list of candidates with their vote will be printed in THE TRIBUNE next Sunday. Be sure to have your name in the list with a large number of votes to your credit.

ASK YOUR FRIENDS.
Ask those of your friends who intend paying their subscriptions this month to vote in your favor. A few votes received early in the race may be just the number you will need to win out over your competitors.
Ambition and energy are the only requirements. You must have friends or be able to make friends, then with a little "stick-to-it-iveness" you will be declared a winner when the prizes are awarded.
Some will start out to win and not be satisfied unless they win the grand honors and obtain the automobile. Others will be satisfied if they are the winners in their own district, as they will then obtain one of the other valuable prizes.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE

During the last few days swarmed our great, new, low-priced tract, eagerly discussing the relative merits of the sites for homes (all of them good)---planning what kind of houses to build---making their reservations, and getting all ready to get their deeds to the big, sightly

FOURTH AVENUE TERRACE

Lots Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, when the great sale begins. Were YOU there? Are you going to be one of those who get in on the ground floor before the prices GO UP next Tuesday morning?

REMEMBER--Five days of Sale at These Prices and then UP THEY GO

Every buyer will make an immediate profit, for all around him lots will be selling at higher prices than he paid. Are you going to let this chance slip by you?

Just a little money---that's all you need---to own a beautiful site for a home of your own that will earn you money night and day.

Some of the Great Facts About FOURTH AVENUE TERRACE

Unexcelled car service.
Great sweeping view of hills and bay.
Proximity to beautiful parks and lake.

Massive and costly entrance pillars.

Magnificent 100-foot boulevard right through the tract.
Unusually large lots---none less than 40 foot frontage.
Wonderful climate.
Excellent drainage.
Perfect healthfulness.

No wonder scores of lots were picked out by purchasers on Sunday within a few hours of our first announcement of this great tract.

No wonder that Monday being Labor Day, hundreds of people of moderate means took advantage of the opportunity to inspect the tract, make their reservations, and plan for TOMORROW'S opening.

No wonder contractors have expressed the intention of taking bunches of lots and building on them AT ONCE to supply the demand for homes.

But how about you?

Are you going to seize this opportunity or let apathy and lack of enterprise keep you from making profit and having a home?

With three railways coming into Oakland---with a great scheme of water front improvement on foot---with new industries, new stores, new banks and new big office buildings going up, choice residence property like this, close in to the center of the city, MUST increase rapidly in value. You may not have the means to build a skyscraper and share in the prosperity of the city through big rentals and increased values, but you CAN invest your money profitably in lots that will quickly increase in worth and thus get YOUR SHARE of the great general prosperity.
